"SAILOR MAIDS"
2-Reel Century Comedy
Featuring the CENTURY FOLLIES

A stranded show troupe, broke, travels by freight in burlap sacks to save railroad fares. One of the girls, concealed in the baggage room, catches a burglar rifling the station safe, but, found by the station agent, is accused of the crime. Chased by the cops, the girls hide in a big packing case, and after many shake-ups, arrive at a sea-port. The box nearly falls into the sea, but eventually is loaded on shipboard.

The two managers of the troupe have difficulty in sneaking aboard the ship, but finally manage to do so, disguised as sailors. The girls, also rigged up as "gobs", get into many difficulties. Their sex discovered, the girls are chased all over the ship. Finally cornered by the captain, they vamp him to the limit; he falls for them, and permits the lot to have a free passage.
